Crash on SW Canyon and SW 110th

Released: October 19, 2011
Case No: Unknown

This morning, October 19, 2011, at 8:43 a.m. Beaverton police were dispatched to a crash between a vehicle and a bicycle on SW Canyon Road and SW 110th Avenue. Witnesses reported the bicyclist was down and unconscious.

When officers arrived the driver of the Dodge Caliber had pulled over and was sitting nearby visibly shaking from the trauma that had occurred. The 20 year old female bicyclist, who had been wearing a helmet, was quickly transported to a local hospital with possible head injuries.

Witnesses told police the driver, and only occupant, of the car was headed east on SW Canyon Road, turning left onto SW 110th. The bicyclist had been traveling west on SW Canyon Road when she impacted the passenger side of the car, as it turned.

The driver of the car was not injured and is fully cooperating with investigators. The bicyclist is reported to be in stable condition.

Crash Analysis Reconstruction Team members are on scene continuing the investigation. The roads have been closed for approximately an hour and a half, as reconstruction takes place and will remain so for another 30 minutes or so.

No further details into the reasons why the crash occurred are available, except that it doesn't appear that alcohol or drugs are involved. Additional information will follow as it's released from CART.
